

DUDGEON

SINCE 1947

Amoeba Ottoman

We made eight of these extraordinary ottomans in different shapes for a superyacht which featured contemporary shapes. Some were made so that they opened for use for storage, and some were just ottomans. The method of building the carcasses was highly unusual and required some blue sky thinking. Once decided upon, however, the resulting ottomans came together well, using leather and fabric coverings.

